PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

“The goal of life is not live forever.
The goal is to create something which will last forever”

We have a strong commitment to teaching and student learning at the undergraduate level. Our students flourish under the mentorship of professors and staff who care for students, inspire them to learn, and push them to reach beyond what they perceive to be their limits. Challenges and Opportunities are two sides of the same coin. Modern education, curriculum development and teaching methodologies have to keep pace with the demand of the economic environment. Shri Nehru Maha Vidyalaya College endeavors to educate a new generation of leaders—men and women who will be capable of shaping the future with vision, justice, and charity—with a sense of calling, with concern for all of the human family.

"We cannot always build the future for our youth, but we can build our youth for the future." “Tell me and I'll forget. Show me, and I may not remember, Involve me, and I'll understand”. This is more relevant in the present day academic and professional world, where the student should not be a mere blind receiver of lessons, but also have the power and ability to critically examine them in the light of facts and situation, leading to creativity, success and a sense of fulfillment.

As the President of this institution I wish you the students all the very best. I appreciate the efforts put in by the editorial team for bringing the magazine to the present shape and bettering their efforts to show case the college as excellent centre of learning. I am indebted to one and all who are associated in making the institution one of the best in the field of Education.

With Best Wishes

TRADITION VS MODERNITY

“The modernity of yesterday is the tradition of today, and the modernity of today will be tradition of tomorrow.” - Jose Andres Puerta

Technology has become an essential part of life today and is taking over our lives because of the fast-paced world that we live in. But, it is high time that we all pause and take stock of our lives. We have to ask ourselves whether a life lived without the cultural and traditional values left behind by our ancestors is actually worth living. SNMV CAS has always tried to uphold the ethnic values passed down to us through generations and it is one of the reasons that SNMV CAS has been able to cross the milestone of twenty-five years of success.

Traditional values like beliefs, moral codes and principles may be consigned to the old-school by the young generation, but are in fact the pillars of any society. Moral values can never be replaced by Technology. But, that is not to say that technological development is unnecessary. It too, forms an important part of our social system. Human beings have to make a careful choice or find a compromise between the two. Co-existence is the key to existence. By bringing the old and the new together, it is possible to engage everyone at an exalted level of thought processes and new ideas. The Management and the Faculty of every college is responsible for inculcating moral standards and new concepts in the minds of the youth. That is why, SNMV CAS has always striven towards a conciliation between the traditional and the modern and will continue to do so in order to turn out more responsible and morally conscious citizens of tomorrow.

Yours Sincerely

DREAMS OF KALAM

“Great dreams of great dreamers are always transcended”– Dr. A.P.J Abdul Kalam

The year 2015 is a year that Indians will not easily forget because it was the year that brought about the demise of the beloved Dr. A.P.J Abdul Kalam. It was a sad moment, but also a moment of solidarity and singularity as all Indians came together as one to mourn the great personality. Dr. Kalam was and will always be a person who inspired students towards making a better India. He always placed his confidence in the youth of the country. Now, it is time that we try to make his dream of India 2020 a reality. As students and part of the youth brigade, all of you are faced with the challenge of bringing about change for the better.

Change always begins with two simple questions – What would I like to change in myself? and When would I want that change to take place? These are not easy questions with easy answers because they require a degree of self- knowledge and self-awareness. Unless we realize that we, as individuals, are intrinsic to the process of change, there can be no transformation. So, instead of complaining it is high time that we look at the concept of self-governance. We can change society if we change. That is why SNMV CAS has always endeavored to keep up with the shifting scenarios while maintaining its quality of Education. We salute the revolutionary Dr. Abdul Kalam and hope that his vision of development and self-sustenance will come true in the coming years because of your continuous efforts and energies. Jai Hind !!!

Yours Sincerely

NATION-BUILDING

“The test of good citizenship is loyalty to country.” - Bainbridge Colby

Our commitment at SNMV CAS is to provide a safe and intellectually challenging environment that will empower students to become innovative thinkers, creative problem solvers and inspired learners prepared to thrive in the twenty-first century. It is with pride that we claim that our institution has been able to do so and fulfill its promise towards nation-building. Our nation is still in the process of development and each of us has a major role to play. We are the architects of the future and it is our floor plans that will design upcoming events.

For this, effective teaching methods including application of class-room teaching to real life situations is necessary, which in turn signifies the need for more practical training and hands-on experience. It also indicates the need to ask the right questions about development, creative and critical thinking. The life-blood of any institution is its faculty and its students. Without proper communication between these two factors, there can be no progress. Hence, the onus is on all of us to create an environment which is suggestive of nation - building in order to teach the youth to be responsible and respective citizens of an India which is not only beautiful but also advanced in all fields. In conclusion, I hope that all the faculty and students of this wonderful institution, SNMV CAS, will put their hands together and frame an India that is invincible. All the Best!!!

With Best Wishes
